October Newsletter

I had a good holiday at Hervey Bay, which is about four hours from Brisbane. I stayed at my god-daughter's Wynn Kerien and I enjoyed it very much. Weather was great for me then unfortunately, my brother-in-law Edward Sturgeon passed away on October 5th 2008, I flew to Dunedin last Sunday.

I was sorry that I was not able to be at the Deaf Mass as I knew Nancy Khaw would do an excellent job filling in for me, thank you Nancy. Now Lena Smith is also on part-time Chaplaincy for Auckland Catholic Deaf Community and I am teaching her the sign language and mentoring her as she learns.

God bless

Mary Johnson
